Any dealer whose liability to pay tax under this Act ceases for any other reason may apply for earlier the cancellation of his registration, and on such cancellation, his liability to pay tax shall cease.

Provided that a dealer shall remain liable to pay tax until the date on which his registration is cancelled.

(8) Re-commencement of liability: Every dealer whose liability to pay tax under this Act has ceased or whose registration has been cancelled, shall, if his turnover calculated from the commencement of any year, including the year in which the registration has been cancelled, again exceeds the taxable quantum on any day within such year be liable to pay such tax on and from the date on which his turnover again exceeds the taxable quantum, on all sales effected by him on and after that day.

- (b) is thereupon a debt owed by the importer to the transporter or agent.

(12) For the purposes of sub-section (5), the conditions with which an Approved Road Transporter must comply are:

Provided that in the cases where the amount of charges towards goods in such contract is not ascertainable from the terms and conditions of the contract, the amount of such charges shall be calculated as the sale price stipulated in the contract reduced by the prescribed percentage.

6. Sales exempt from tax

(1) The sale or import of goods listed in the First Schedule shall be exempt from tax subject to the conditions and exceptions set out therein.

(2) The dealers or class of dealers as may be notified and specified from time to time in the Fifth Schedule shall be exempted from payment of tax on all sales of goods effected by them subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

- (a) the net tax for the tax period was due; and
 - (b) the amount of tax in respect of the import of the goods was due.

Explanation. This section ensures that interest accrues on the unpaid amount from the time when the deficiency arose, rather than the date of making the assessment or re-assessment.

(b) any amounts due under this Act where the person has made an appeal to the Appellate Tribunal.

(4) Notwithstanding sub-section (1), where an amount of tax or penalty has been assessed by the Commissioner and the Commissioner is of the opinion that there is a real likelihood that it may not be possible to recover the amount assessed if collection is delayed, the Commissioner may specify a date in the notice of assessment as the date on which collection of the amounts due and payable may commence which is earlier than one month after the date of service of the notice of assessment.

Where the seller has not sought to pass on the tax to the buyer, a refund may be made.

41. Power to withhold refund in certain cases

(1) Where any proceeding under this Act is pending which would, if successful entitle the person to a refund, and the Commissioner is of the opinion that payment of such refund is likely to adversely affect the revenue and that it may not be possible to recover the amount later the Commissioner may withhold the refund until the proceedings or the audit have been concluded.

If, the amount of such refund is enhanced or reduced, as the case may be, such interest shall be enhanced or reduced accordingly.

Explanation: If the delay in granting the refund is attributable to the said person, whether wholly or in part, the period of the delay attributable to him shall be excluded from the period for which the interest is payable.
